

What is the basic unit of human interaction in society?

- A. Workplace
- B. Government
- C. Family
- D. Economy

ANSWER: C

What is considered the foundational value in a human relationship?

- A. Wealth
- B. Trust
- C. Competition
- D. Status

ANSWER: B

Which of the following is essential for harmony in the family?

- A. Mutual trust and respect
- B. Accumulation of wealth
- C. Social status and power
- D. Strict discipline only

ANSWER: A

What does 'Respect' in a relationship mean?

- A. Fear of the other person
- B. Right evaluation of the other person
- C. Blindly agreeing with others
- D. Superiority over others

ANSWER: B

Which of the following best represents 'Trust' in a relationship?

- A. Expecting favors from others
- B. Assuming others will harm you
- C. Having faith in the intention of the other person
- D. Keeping secrets from each other

ANSWER: C

Which feeling is necessary for ensuring justice in human relationships?

- A. Anger
- B. Ego
- C. Gratitude
- D. Competition

ANSWER: C

What is a key indicator of a just human-to-human relationship?

- A. Mutual fulfillment and happiness

- B. Dominance of one over the other
- C. Wealth-based status
- D. Physical strength and power

ANSWER: A

Which of the following is NOT a necessary component of a harmonious family?

- A. Love
- B. Wealth
- C. Trust
- D. Respect

ANSWER: B

Which of the following promotes harmony in society?

- A. Conflict and discrimination
- B. Mutual understanding and cooperation
- C. Economic competition
- D. Political power struggles

ANSWER: B

What is meant by 'Universal Human Order'?

- A. A system where everyone is forced to follow one rule
- B. A vision of a harmonious society based on mutual prosperity
- C. A political structure imposed on people
- D. A market-based economy for global trade

ANSWER: B

Which of the following is a requirement for achieving harmony in society?

- A. Mutual fear
- B. Mutual understanding and justice
- C. Strict laws and punishments
- D. Financial success

ANSWER: B

What is the role of family in human relationships?

- A. To provide economic support only
- B. To develop values, trust, and harmony
- C. To compete for wealth and resources
- D. To create social status

ANSWER: B

What is the main cause of conflicts in relationships?

- A. Right understanding and trust
- B. Misunderstanding and lack of trust
- C. Mutual fulfillment

D. Fairness and justice

ANSWER: B

Which of the following ensures mutual happiness in human relationships?

- A. Right understanding and trust
- B. Suppressing one's emotions
- C. Accumulating physical facilities
- D. Dominating others

ANSWER: A

Why is 'Trust' considered the foundational value in relationships?

- A. It builds fear in people
- B. It strengthens mutual understanding and cooperation
- C. It leads to economic growth
- D. It helps in controlling others

ANSWER: B

What is the significance of 'Respect' in a relationship?

- A. To judge others based on wealth
- B. To compare people's achievements
- C. To recognize and value the inherent goodness in every individual
- D. To fear authority figures

ANSWER: C

What is the right way to evaluate a person?

- A. By their material possessions
- B. By their societal status
- C. By their innate values and intentions
- D. By their physical appearance

ANSWER: C

Which of the following contributes to injustice in human relationships?

- A. Respect and fairness
- B. Exploitation and discrimination
- C. Love and trust
- D. Empathy and understanding

ANSWER: B

What is the role of education in establishing harmony in society?

- A. To provide job opportunities
- B. To instill values of trust, respect, and justice
- C. To create economic competition
- D. To promote materialistic desires

ANSWER: B

Which feeling is necessary to maintain harmony in the family?

- A. Domination
- B. Fear
- C. Affection and care
- D. Comparison

ANSWER: C

What does a society based on the Universal Human Order aim to achieve?

- A. Financial stability for a few individuals
- B. Mutual prosperity and harmony
- C. A rigid power structure
- D. Competition for resources

ANSWER: B

What is a common sign of disharmony in human relationships?

- A. Peace and cooperation
- B. Stress and conflicts
- C. Mutual understanding
- D. Justice and fairness

ANSWER: B

Which of the following is NOT a correct method for ensuring harmony in society?

- A. Promoting mutual respect and trust
- B. Encouraging discrimination
- C. Providing education on human values
- D. Practicing justice in relationships

ANSWER: B

How does justice contribute to social harmony?

- A. By ensuring fairness in all relationships
- B. By giving more power to the wealthy
- C. By increasing economic competition
- D. By dividing people into social classes

ANSWER: A

What is one of the major reasons for disharmony in today's society?

- A. Increasing respect for human values
- B. Overemphasis on material wealth and competition
- C. Promotion of justice
- D. Growth of empathy and understanding

ANSWER: B

What should be the basis of human-to-human relationships?

- A. Power and control
- B. Wealth and social status
- C. Mutual trust and justice
- D. Fear and superiority

ANSWER: C

How does mutual respect strengthen relationships?

- A. By creating fear in others
- B. By ensuring fairness and positive interactions
- C. By encouraging social divisions
- D. By controlling people's choices

ANSWER: B

Which of the following is an example of justice in relationships?

- A. Treating people fairly, regardless of status
- B. Discriminating based on wealth
- C. Judging people based on appearance
- D. Competing for personal gain

ANSWER: A

What should be the ultimate goal of human relationships in society?

- A. Economic superiority
- B. Mutual happiness and trust
- C. Political power
- D. Dominance over others

ANSWER: B